 Dictionary of Occupations ... Published by Family & Community Historical

Research Society. For Sale from NWKFHS publications (click here for more details)

This CD ROM was originally published by the Open University (OU) as part of their courses Studying family and community history: nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Published by the UK Ministry of Labour in 1927, until recently it has been available in only a few specialist libraries.

This CD-ROM reproduces the entire dictionary. It defines 29,106 terms, covering 16,837 different occupations of people who worked in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Many of these occupations, and the terms used to describe them, are today generally unknown.

The disks are available from the Society at Branch meetings or by post.

Cost by post £10.00 plus postage and packing of £1 for the UK and £2 overseas.

 NWKFHS Journal. Did you spot the request for articles about World War One?

I am trying to evaluate if we will get sufficient to devote one issue to WW1. If you can contribute an article (100-1000 words plus any pictures as jpegs) please contact me on editor@nwkfhs.org.uk. (issue date to be decided)
