A request from the Journal Editor

Can you help?

There is currently a need for a volunteer who can complete some initial editing in Word of contributions for the Journal and copy-type/edit occasional hand-written contributions from members.

You should have good internet connections, be able to use email, access to the Word processing programme and a thoughtful approach to editing.

As this is an on-line role, you do not need to live in North West Kent.

Please contact editor@nwkfhs.org.uk

Good news - the library at Joyden's Wood has re-opened for members to do their research on Wednesdays. Our Society Librarian, Janet, has further info and asks those who want to come to book a time slot to prevent overcrowding. Janet's phone number is 01322 384836.

Library at: 80 Summerhouse Drive, Joydens Wood, Kent DA5 2EE

Parking in nearby roads.

Those of you who have been to the library will know that space can be tight and this is the best way of controlling it and being fair to everyone.

Talks are now either in person at our Dartford and Sevenoaks venues or by Zoom.

The combined details of Zoom and in person talks are in one chronological list below.

The description for each event states clearly whether it is via Zoom or an in person talk.

Currently all Workshops remain Zoom.

Saturday 4 December Doors Open 9.45am meeting starts at 10.30am at Dartford Branch.

Location: Dartford Science and Technology College, Heath Lane, Dartford Kent DA1 2LY

Guest speaker Imogen Corrigan will talk about The Politeness of Princes

The reality of medieval etiquette and table manners.

Punctuality being the politeness of princes, this lecture examines the reality of manners and etiquette in the Medieval period. A far cry from the popular image of appalling table manners, Medieval dining was a minefield of dos and don'ts, many of which were recorded in courtesy books (Teach Yourself How To Be A Gentleman texts).

A rich vein of artistic evidence also survives, bearing out what is written. The lecture deals with the structure of formal banquets and the food eaten as well as how young gentlemen were trained and more everyday advice to women about hygiene and how to conduct themselves.

You can read more about Imogen here: <http://www.medieval-lecture.com>

The meeting will be led by Janet Rose.

Free to NWKFHS members; non members are asked to make a donation towards costs of hall hire and speaker.

There is a large, free car park but it is shared with other users and can be busy at times.

No booking, just turn up.

Thursday 9 December Doors Open 7.15pm Meeting starts 8.00pm talk at Sevenoaks Branch.

Location: Otford Village Memorial Hall, High Street, Otford TN14 5PQ (adjacent car park is free in the evening).

Guest Speaker Melanie Gibson Barton will give us an entertaining mystery talk entitled "The String of Pearls".

In the spirit of the Mousetrap, before commencing her mystery talk 'Three Women One Man – glamour, wealth and heartbreak', speaker Melanie Gibson-Barton will swear us all to keep secret the names of the intriguing participants - even from members not attending the meeting! Audience members are asked to not speculate on the identities prior to the commencement of the talk.

Melanie has been giving talks for several years to the National Trust, U3A, history groups, church groups, Oddfellows, Women's Institutes, Soroptimists and retirement social groups such as Rotary, CSMA, ARAs and PROBUS – 'live' and in recent months via Zoom.us - and tells us she has the privilege of meeting new audiences to entertain and inform every day. Her range of currently seventeen talks can be viewed at www.toonstelling.com.

Free to NWKFHS members; non members are asked to make a donation towards costs of hall hire and speaker.

No booking, just turn up.

I (Stella Eames) welcome photos of people or places (specially historical or family history) in the North West Kent area with a story about them as I like to start each newsletter with a photo and story. I am a volunteer creating this e-news in my 'spare time' but, if you do notice any errors, please tell me, so that they are not carried forward to the next edition.

I often get asked to publicise family history fairs, new books on genealogy and small genealogy businesses. I use my discretion in including ones which are local to our area or which I think may interest readers. It does not mean that I or NWKFHS has any personal knowledge, or makes any recommendation, about the event or business.

If there is anything else I should be aware of, to give you maximum benefit from this enews service, please let me know. I do receive many suggestions and requests for external events to be included, but there is only room for so much and I am conscious that the longer this email is, the less likely it is to be read. Some external events I publish on our Facebook page instead. But I'd welcome your opinions on the length and content and whether there is anything additional you'd like included.

Please mention it to others and encourage them to sign up so that we can keep society members and anyone interested in family history informed of NWKFHS activities.
